KATS also has vehicles equipped to accommodate passengers with disabilities. Riders should call the Eufaula office to ask about scheduling, fares, service areas, wheelchair accessibility, and advance-notice requirements.

KI BOIS Area Transit System (KATS) – McIntosh County
609 W. Main St.
Henryetta, OK 74437
918-652-3329
https://www.kibois.org/
Counties Served: McIntosh County and other counties within the KI BOIS service area
Description: KI BOIS Area Transit System is a rural public transportation program operated by KI BOIS Community Action Foundation that provides transportation to residents who may not have access to reliable personal transportation. KATS serves McIntosh County as part of its larger eastern Oklahoma service area and provides demand-response transportation for seniors, individuals with disabilities, workers, students, and members of the general public. Transportation can be used for medical appointments, employment, shopping, education, and other essential trips. The system is designed to improve access to healthcare, employment, and community resources in rural areas. Because rides are generally scheduled in advance, residents should contact the appropriate KATS office before traveling to confirm the pickup location, service area, fare, and scheduling requirements.

McIntosh County Senior Transportation – KI BOIS Area Transit System
Eufaula service location
Eufaula, OK 74432
918-689-1020
https://www.kibois.org/
Counties Served: McIntosh County
Description: KI BOIS Area Transit System provides transportation specifically useful to older adults living in McIntosh County who need assistance reaching medical appointments, grocery stores, senior centers, employment, and other essential destinations. The City of Eufaula currently identifies KATS as its public transportation partner and states that the service provides curb-to-curb transportation throughout Eufaula and McIntosh County, with transportation available to the general public and services often tailored to seniors. Because McIntosh County is rural and many residents live outside the county's larger communities, demand-response transportation can provide an important alternative for seniors who no longer drive or do not have dependable transportation. Riders should call the Eufaula KATS office to schedule trips and ask about senior fares, accessibility, pickup arrangements, and advance reservations.

https://www.va.gov/eastern-oklahoma-health-care/
Counties Served: McIntosh County and surrounding eastern Oklahoma counties
Description: The Eastern Oklahoma VA Health Care System provides healthcare and support services to eligible veterans living in McIntosh County. The VA's Jack C. Montgomery VA Medical Center in Muskogee coordinates transportation to VA medical appointments from Eufaula and Checotah on Thursdays, with the published transportation schedule identifying both communities as pickup locations. Eligible veterans may also qualify for VA beneficiary travel benefits, including reimbursement for certain travel expenses or special transportation to authorized medical appointments. The Eastern Oklahoma VA system provides primary care, specialty healthcare, mental health services, pharmacy services, social work, rehabilitation, and other VA programs through its medical center and community-based locations. Veterans in McIntosh County can contact the VA to determine eligibility, enroll in VA healthcare, arrange transportation, and obtain referrals to appropriate services.

Oklahoma Department of Veterans Affairs – Northeast Service Team
Regional service area 918-348-4901
https://oklahoma.gov/veterans/veterans-services/find-a-service-officer.html
Counties Served: McIntosh County and surrounding northeastern Oklahoma counties
Description: The Oklahoma Department of Veterans Affairs (ODVA) provides free assistance to Oklahoma veterans, service members, and eligible family members with accessing state and federal veterans benefits. McIntosh County is included in the ODVA Northeast service region, whose service officers assist with VA disability compensation claims, pension applications, education benefits, healthcare enrollment, survivor benefits, military records, and other earned benefits. The current ODVA directory lists multiple service officers serving the Northeast region, including Angela Chalk at 918-537-0129, Bobbie Jones at 405-982-2493, Michael Merit at 918-616-5336, David Roberts at 918-252-8014, Les Rouell at 918-348-8377, and Joseph Spychalski at 918-397-2561. Veterans should call before traveling because service officers may serve multiple counties and appointments are recommended.

Oklahoma Department of Veterans Affairs – Southeast Service Team
Regional service area 918-577-0372
https://oklahoma.gov/veterans/veterans-services/find-a-service-officer.html
Counties Served: McIntosh County and surrounding southeastern Oklahoma counties
Description: The Oklahoma Department of Veterans Affairs also includes McIntosh County within its Southeast service region, providing veterans another regional point of access for benefits assistance. ODVA service officers help veterans and eligible dependents understand and apply for federal and state benefits, including disability compensation, pension, healthcare-related benefits, education benefits, survivor benefits, and other programs. The current Southeast team includes service officers Quentin Cox at 918-348-9648, Catherine McBride at 918-397-2560, Shane Satterfield at 918-616-9590, Terry Ryan Stubbs at 918-397-2570, Gregory Cheatwood, and Deaglan McGowan. Because the team serves numerous counties, veterans should call the regional office or an individual service officer to arrange an appointment and determine the most convenient location for assistance.

Emergency Shelter Services

Bartlesville Lighthouse Outreach Center
1411 W. Hensley Blvd.
Bartlesville, OK 74003
918-336-9029
https://www.bartlesvillelighthouse.org/
Counties Served: Nowata County and surrounding northeastern Oklahoma communities
Description: Bartlesville Lighthouse Outreach Center provides emergency homeless shelter and transitional housing for individuals and families experiencing homelessness, including residents of Nowata County. The Lighthouse describes itself as a 24-hour homeless shelter and provides separate accommodations for men, women, and families, along with three meals per day, clothing and personal items, hygiene supplies, showers, laundry facilities, and bedding. The organization also offers life-skills training, employment referrals, housing referrals, substance-use treatment referrals, mental-health referrals, and assistance with Social Security and disability benefits. Transitional housing is available for residents who are moving toward independent living. Because the shelter is located in Bartlesville but serves the surrounding region, Nowata County residents should call 918-336-9029 before traveling to confirm current availability, intake requirements, and eligibility.

Family Promise of Washington County
Bartlesville, OK 74003
918-815-3457
https://www.familypromisewashingtonco.org/
Counties Served: Nowata, Washington, and surrounding northeastern Oklahoma communities
Description: Family Promise of Washington County provides emergency and transitional housing support for families with children experiencing homelessness or housing instability. The organization works with families to address the immediate need for a safe place to stay while also helping them overcome the barriers that contributed to homelessness. Services may include temporary shelter, case management, housing navigation, assistance obtaining employment and benefits, budgeting and life-skills support, and connections to other community resources. Family Promise is listed by Ray of Hope as a temporary-shelter resource for the Bartlesville area, making it a potential referral option for families from Nowata County who need emergency housing. Because shelter placement depends on family composition, program availability, and current capacity, residents should call 918-815-3457 before going to the organization.

Ray of Hope Advocacy Center
706 E. 3rd St.
Bartlesville, OK 74003
918-214-8886
https://www.rayofhopeac.org/
Counties Served: Nowata, Washington, and Osage counties
Description: Ray of Hope Advocacy Center provides emergency assistance and advocacy for survivors of domestic violence, sexual assault, stalking, and child abuse in Nowata County. The organization maintains a 24-hour emergency assistance line at 918-214-8886 and can help survivors with safety planning, crisis intervention, advocacy, protective-order assistance, and referrals to emergency shelter and other safe-housing resources. Ray of Hope is an Oklahoma Attorney General-certified domestic-violence and sexual-assault program, and the state specifically lists Nowata County as part of its service area. Because emergency shelter locations for domestic-violence survivors are often confidential for safety reasons, individuals fleeing abuse should call the 24-hour line rather than attempting to locate or visit a shelter without an appointment. All Ray of Hope services are provided without cost.

Temporary Shelter – Bartlesville Area
Bartlesville, OK
918-336-9029
https://oksafenow.org/resources/
Counties Served: Nowata County and surrounding northeastern Oklahoma communities
Description: Residents of Nowata County who need immediate shelter because they are experiencing homelessness can use the Bartlesville-area temporary-shelter network as a nearby emergency resource. OKSafe Now and Ray of Hope identify the Lighthouse Outreach Center at 1411 W. Hensley Blvd. and Family Promise as temporary-shelter resources in the region. The Lighthouse provides overnight shelter for men, women, and families and offers meals, clothing, hygiene supplies, transitional housing, and referrals for employment, healthcare, mental health, substance-use treatment, and permanent housing. Shelter availability can change quickly, particularly during periods of severe weather or high demand, so individuals should call 918-336-9029 before traveling to determine whether space is available and what intake procedures apply.
